MAURICIO POCHETTINO

Good afternoon and welcome back.

It seems like a long time since our last home game against Crvena zvezda and I was happy we capped off a run of challenging away games with a good performance and important result in Belgrade on Wednesday.

We were fantastic in the home win against Crvena zvezda and it was pleasing we could replicate that display in Serbia this week. The way we dominated the game in the opposition's half on Wednesday is how we need to approach games and it was satisfying to see our plan come to fruition.

Before I speak about the Everton game, I should like to send my best wishes on behalf of everybody at Tottenham Hotspur to Andre Gomes. I was happy to hear his surgery went well and I hope he has a quick recovery. As for the match itself, we controlled the game until we were reduced to 10 men. I believe we were the better team, so naturally it was disappointing to not score more.

"THE WAY WE DOMINATED THE GAME IN THE OPPOSITION'S HALF ON WEDNESDAY IS HOW WE NEED TO APPROACH GAMES AND IT WAS SATISFYING TO SEE OUR PLAN COME TO FRUITION"

We welcome Chris Wilder and his Sheffield United side this afternoon and I have no doubt it will be a tough game – they have shown their quality on their return to the Premier League.

Wednesday's result against Crvena zvezda was an important three points as well as being a good step to build our confidence. We need to maintain that level as winning games in the Premier League is our immediate focus, starting with today.

Whether we play at home or in difficult places to travel to such as Belgrade, your support is amazing. It really does help the team so please get behind them once again this afternoon.

Enjoy the game.

SON SHINES IN SERBIA

Heung-Min Son was back to his effervescent self following his two-goal display in Belgrade on Wednesday night as we took a big step towards qualifying for the knockout stages of the Champions League.

The South Korean was visibly distraught following the dreadful injury suffered by Andre Gomes at Everton last weekend and there were concerns as to whether he would be in the right frame of mind to make the trip to Serbia in midweek. But with Sonny's red card subsequently rescinded and news of Gomes' successful surgery filtering through, the forward took his place on the trip.

And he certainly played his part in what was a fine 4-0 victory over Crvena zvezda at the Rajko Mitic Stadium, a notoriously difficult place to go and a venue at which the Serbs hadn't conceded more than once in their previous 72 home matches.

After surviving a couple of early scares, we took the lead through Giovani Lo Celso on his first start for us before Sonny helped himself to two goals, with Christian Eriksen rounding off the scoring late on.

"This is a really difficult place to play and the lads deserved to get the three points," said Sonny. "We showed a great attitude and can take so many positives with the clean sheet and the four goals.

"The gaffer spoke to us before the game and said it would be tough, that they would come at us and be aggressive, but the lads were focussed and the mentality was right, so I think the players deserve a lot of credit for the performance."

Having defeated Crvena zvezda 5-0 here in our last home game, we failed to take that form into the Premier League, losing at Liverpool and drawing with Everton in our subsequent games, so Sonny insists it is vital we build on Wednesday's result this time.

"It is really important to bring this positive energy into the Premier League," he added. "Now we have to focus and be ready for the game against Sheffield United.

"We have another international break afterwards, so I want to go away with the national team with three points and a good feeling. It's been a tough time for us lately but it's all about togetherness now. We can get through this and we all believe that."

DELE'S RECORD STAYS INTACT

Dele's strike against Everton last weekend maintained an incredible record for the attacking midfielder – we are yet to lose when he scores in the Premier League.

That goal made it 39 matches in which Dele has scored and we haven't lost – only James Milner (52) and Darius Vassell (46) have more.

Fans may remember a similar record for Aaron Lennon during his time at Spurs. He scored 30 goals in 29 matches in all competitions – 25 in the Premier League – between 2005-2015 and the team remained unbeaten every time he found the net.

CHARLIE HANNAFORD

As part of an occasional feature, Andy Greeves takes at a look at former Spurs players who made just a single competitive appearance for us. Today, he explores the various individuals that featured in just one London Football Combination match for us during World War I.

Guest players - such as Birmingham City's Percy Barton, who netted six times in 91 appearances and Ted Bassett of Notts County, who scored 37 goals in 74 matches for us – were a regular feature in our starting XI during World War I.

Of the 13 guest players that featured for us in the London Football Combination during the 1915/16 season, two made just a single appearance in our colours. P Glen of Gillingham scored in his only game for us – a 1-1 draw with Brentford on 11 September 1915 – while Bohemians' J.J. Doyle made his Spurs cameo in a 3-1 defeat at Fulham on 19 February 1916. Frank Fricker's debut, which also proved to be his last outing for us, came in our first-ever London Football Combination match – a 2-0 defeat at Arsenal on 4 September meanwhile.

Charlie Hannaford, who went on to play for the likes of Millwall, Charlton Athletic and Manchester United after World War I, was another guest player for us during the conflict. The outside-left, then of non-league side Tufnell Park, netted in his only match for us - a 5-1 away victory at Brentford on Christmas Day 1916.

Ernie Williamson – better known as 'Tim' – made his one and only appearance for us against Portsmouth on 10 April 1917, as a stand-in for our regular goalkeeper of the time, Bill Jacques. It ended up being an expensive guest appearance as Williamson's parent club, Arsenal, complained to the London Football Combination for us fielding the player without their permission and we were subsequently fined five guineas!

Other guest players to make their only appearance for us during the 1916/17 season included Tom Caldwell (then of Gillingham), SA Clayton (Bradford), Charlie Crossley (Sunderland), Kenneth Hunt (Oxford City), Herbert Powell (Boscombe) and H Slade (Reading). G McGlashlan and A

Bearman also made their debuts for us during the campaign but never featured subsequently.

With Jacques unavailable for 11 matches during the 1917/18 season, no less than five different players wore our goalkeepers' jersey throughout the campaign. Ernie Hoffman was the first to deputise for our regular stopper, arriving as a guest player from South Shields. He conceded four goals on his Spurs debut, in a defeat at Fulham on 1 December 1917, and never played for us again.

A Baldwin didn't fair any better, letting in five goals in his first and last Spurs match - a heavy 'home' defeat by West Ham United at Highbury on 9 March 1918. Soon after, Dutch-born goalkeeper D Lindsay established himself as our second-choice to Jacques' for the next 12 months, making the first of his 24 appearances for us in a 3-0 triumph at Fulham on 23 March 1918. With both Jacques and Lindsay unavailable for our trip to Fulham on 27 April 1918, however, yet another individual took his place between the sticks for us that season as George Wren made his solitary appearance in the 1-0 defeat.

Guest player Alf Spencer scored in his first and only match for us in a 4-2 win at his parent club Clapton Orient on 15 December 1917 while a forward with the surname 'Saunders' lined up for us against his employers Brentford in our 3-2 win at Griffin Park on 5 January 1918. Another player with the surname 'Bird' took to the field for us for the only time that day while a defender with the name 'Robinson' featured in our 3-2 away defeat to Fulham on 4 May 1918 for the only occasion.

Our list of single-appearance makers during the 1917/18 season is completed by Bill Fleming – who lined-up in a 6-0 win at Millwall on Christmas Day 1917 – and W Halle, who featured in a 2-2 draw at West Ham United on 19 January 1918.

We know little more than the surnames of six players – Messrs 'Bee', 'Bully', 'Frazer', 'Gee', 'Hoffman' (an outfield player not to be confused with goalkeeper Ernie Hoffman) and 'Pattinson' - who made their one and only appearance for us during the 1918/19 season. A. Cain, a guest player from Bohemians, scored on his only outing for us during the campaign – a 7-1 away defeat by Queens Park Rangers on 15 February 1919.

Rangers outside-right Scott Duncan - who also guested for rivals Celtic during World War I - played one match us for against West Ham United on 16 November 1918. After hanging up his boots in 1923, he served as secretary of a number of clubs including Manchester United and managed Ipswich Town between 1937 and 1955. Joe Walters, who won the First Division title with Aston Villa in 1909/10, made his solo appearance for us in a 1-0 defeat by West Ham United on 8 March 1919. Other Spurs debutants during the 1918/19 season, who never appeared for us again, included FJC Blake, Billy Brawn, HF Couchman, Sam Jennings and J Parsons.

Details of our 'One and Only' appearance makers during World War II will be included in the Olympiacos programme.

SPURS REMEMBERS

During this period of Remembrance, the Club is honouring our serving Armed Forces and veterans by supporting the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal.

As part of our activities, we are delighted to welcome 25 members of our Armed Forces Spurs Supporters' Club – the official Supporters' Club of the British Armed Forces – to today's match.

Formed in Camp Bastion, Afghanistan in 2012, the club has grown to include over 200 UK service personnel worldwide, organising charity and community activities, social events and match tickets. Armed Forces Spurs is chaired by Flight Lieutenant Will Brooke, a lifelong Tottenham Hotspur fan and South Stand season ticket holder and this season, the branch has raised over £3,000 for the Poppy Appeal.

Ahead of kick-off, we shall be joined pitchside by Armed Forces Spurs members, representatives of the Royal Navy, the Army, the Royal Air Force and service veterans, who will form the guard of honour welcoming the players to the pitch.

Corporal Dave Thomson, British Army Veteran of the Royal Hospital Chelsea Pensioners, Flight Lieutenant Will Brooke, and RAF Cadet Sgt Summa-Jo Bradley – representing the past, present and future of Spurs supporters serving in our Armed Forces – will then lay a Poppy wreath on the centre circle on behalf of the Club.

We shall then observe a period of silence that will start and end on the referee's whistle, during which The Last Post will be played by a bugler from the Royal Air Force.

The team will wear special edition poppy shirts during today's match, that will be signed and auctioned to raise money for the Poppy Appeal.

Tomorrow, Remembrance Sunday, we shall be represented by Club Ambassadors, Gary Mabbutt and Ledley King, who will lay wreaths on behalf of the Club at local Remembrance services being held in Tottenham and Wood Green.

Furthermore, the Club has been selling dual-branded Poppy pin badges both online and in all Spurs Shops for a minimum donation of £3 to the Royal British Legion. There is still time to purchase one of these limited-edition badges today.

MEET TODAY'S REMEMBRANCE SERVICE PARTICIPANTS

Corporal (Retired) Dave Thompson – Chelsea Pensioner (Wreath Layer)

Born into a Spurs-supporting family in Palmers Green, Dave went to his first Tottenham Hotspur game in 1957, with Ted Ditchburn and Danny Blanchflower his early favourite players. He joined the Army in 1960 at the age of 15 and was known as Tottenham Tommo throughout his Army career. Having not missed a game since 1957 and seen Bill Nicholson build the great Double-winning team, he missed most of our successful 1960/61 season due to Army training.

Dave has been a Chelsea Pensioner for seven years, but a Spurs fan for as long as he can remember.

He has a season ticket in the North Stand and often wears the iconic Scarlett Tunic to games. When asked "Are you a Chelsea Pensioner?", Dave's response is: "No, I'm a Tottenham Pensioner!"

Warrant Officer 1 Shaun Tully – Parade Warrant Officer

Shaun is a South Stand season ticket holder and member of Armed Forces Spurs. He has served in the Royal Navy across the world over a 40-year career and will retire in 2019. During his time deployed abroad with the Royal Navy, Shaun has watched many televised Spurs games with fellow international supporters. He is currently the Fleet Caterer for the Naval Service and is honoured to be today's Parade Commander.

Sergeant Summa-Jo Bradley – RAF Cadet (Wreath Layer)

Summa-Jo Bradley is a member of 1113 Berkhamsted Air Cadets in Hertfordshire. She has been a valuable part of the Squadron progressing to Sergeant in record time, having only served two years. When asked about her future plans, Summa-Jo said: "I really enjoy the RAF and want to progress into the Medics full-time when I'm older."

She has been a huge Spurs fan for nine years after attending her first game at the age of five. Summa-Jo's favourite player is Hugo Lloris and she is proud to be a part of the first Remembrance event at the new stadium as she follows in the footsteps of her father, Corporal Jamie Bradley, who took part in the final Remembrance Service at White Hart Lane.

Sergeant David Vivas – Parade Sergeant

A Spurs fan for as long as he can remember, David is currently a Troop Sergeant and Intelligence Analyst. Prior to this, he served as a Human Terrain Analyst and Cultural Specialist in the Middle East and North Africa Cell at the Defence Cultural Specialist Unit. David has also served as a Counter Intelligence Operator in Afghanistan. Today, he will be Drill Instructor for the guard of honour.

Corporal (Retired) Andrew Lofthouse – Last Post Bugler

Andrew is a lifelong Spurs fan and former Principal Trumpet of the Central Band of the Royal Air Force, holding the rank of Corporal. He joined the Force in 2010 and served for eight years, winning the RAF soloist competition and recording numerous solos on CDs.

During this time, Andrew has travelled the world representing the RAF, visiting the USA, Canada, India, Cyprus, Switzerland, Belgium and France. His career highlights include being a member of the Fanfare Trumpets for both the Royal Wedding of Prince William and Kate Middleton at Westminster Abbey and for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebration at St. Paul's Cathedral. Andrew also performed The Last Post at our final Remembrance match at White Hart Lane.

Members of the RAF Spurs Official Supporters' Club and a British Army colleague recently played a part in making our first-ever 2019 NFL London Games so memorable. During the opening ceremony of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers versus Carolina Panthers game, RAF helicopters conducted a flypast over the stadium. With specialist skills required to manage the timing of aircraft flying overhead, the Mobile Air Operations Team (MAOT) from the Armed Forces helped make this spectacle happen.

DEFIANT DAV

Defender Ben Davies knows times have been tough for us in the Premier League of late, but he is as determined as ever to help us rediscover our form and get ourselves moving back up the table, starting today against Sheffield United

It was a proud moment for Ben Davies to captain the team for the first time against Everton last Sunday, but the defender could not have imagined how greatly his calming influence would be needed in Merseyside as the game took an unfortunate turn in its late stages.

Drawing 1-1 in Liverpool, we battled hard to take a point on our travels with an encouraging team performance but that positive display became almost immaterial after Toffees' midfielder Andre Gomes suffered a severe ankle injury on 79 minutes.

A sombre atmosphere covered all corners of Goodison Park in the moments after the incident involving Heung-Min Son and Serge Aurier as the true extent of the Portuguese midfielder's injury became clear. The players who witnessed it were visibly distressed, holding their heads in dismay as they offered all their support to Gomes. No one more so than Son, who was dismissed in the aftermath for his challenge, although that red card has since been rescinded.

After such a difficult moment, a man down and with at least 10 minutes of the game still to play, plus a considerable spell of injury time expected to be added on, the team needed galvanising, pulling together and refocussing.

"WE ARE A VERY STRONG GROUP THOUGH, A TIGHT-KNIT GROUP. WE REALLY BELIEVE THAT IT'S JUST A MATTER OF TIME UNTIL THINGS TURN AROUND"

First-time skipper Ben had to act.

"Goodison is a very hard place to go and as far as the game plan went it was about scoring that first goal and trying to stay on top. Incidents like Andre Gomes' injury, however, change games and it really shifted the momentum," Ben explained.

"It was a horrible moment and you could see that the boys were a bit shaken up from it, but I had to tell the lads to try to focus on the remainder of the game and deal with everything that would come afterwards. That was the message.

"I was involved in a game with a similar incident when Seamus Coleman suffered his bad injury and it shocks the stadium. Andre will have all the support he needs and everyone here at Spurs obviously hopes he makes a full and speedy recovery, but I hope he understands when I say that I don't think it was malicious from Sonny.

"In the game, we probably thought we'd done enough but one moment of quality can out-do you sometimes. We might not have created that much but we limited Everton to very few chances and we felt we were comfortably on top. When we were defending with 10 men, we were under the cosh, but we didn't give them too many opportunities bar one header and the goal. I thought we fought bravely but we were unlucky in the end. In football, sometimes you have to ride your luck, but it wasn't to be."

Having led the game through Dele's strike on 63 minutes, it was disappointing to have left Goodison with just a point having been pegged back late on in the clash. It was another frustrating outing for us in the Premier League this season.

But, despite recent results, Ben is confident that we will come out of this difficult period stronger and believes that it is only a matter of time until we are back on track.

"Losing games is painful," he admitted. "You want to win every game at this level, especially with the team we have, but it hasn't been the case so far. We are a very strong group though, a tight-knit group. We really believe that it's just a matter of time until things turn around.

"I think, for us, it's just about maintaining our belief. Things always seem to revert back to the average and the average for us is not being 11th or 12th in the league. We have shown in the last few years that we are a better side than that.

"As long as we are patient and we show our belief as a team that we can do it, I think things will bounce back soon.

"As players, we know the quality we have, we've shown that, so we know where we need to be. It'll be a matter of time before things start clicking."

And it is that self-belief and positive mindset that the defender believes will be crucial for us to hold onto as we look to pull through these frustrating moments.

"WE EXPECT TO BE IN THE TOP FOUR, WE SET THOSE STANDARDS OURSELVES AND WE'VE SHOWN WE NEED TO BE THERE BECAUSE OF THE QUALITY WE HAVE DISPLAYED IN THE LAST FEW YEARS"

Ben is well versed in finding what it takes to get through difficult patches. While at Swansea, he experienced the extreme struggles of the Premier League as they battled against the ultimate threat of relegation. He knows how fierce life can be in English football's top-flight.

He dealt with the pressure then and now, as we find ourselves in these relatively offbeat waters, the full back is assured and confident that the strength is there in the squad, both physically and mentally, to pass through this rough ground.

"With the environment that has been built at the Club over the last few years, and with what the manager puts across to us, the current situation is not too difficult to negotiate around," the Welsh international explained. "The gaffer believes in us and we believe in ourselves as a squad. We have shown what we can do but every team goes through blips and I think we will come out the other side stronger for it.

"Granted, the situation was probably even more stressful at Swansea when you are at risk of going down a league. We were still involved in a relegation scrap until about mid-April at least. That's a different pressure altogether, where you are really scrapping for some players' careers and you don't really know what the next step will be.

"Here of course, we expect to be in the top four, we set those standards ourselves and we've shown we need to be there because of the quality we have displayed in the last few years.

"Right now, we have the self-belief and I think we have got the right mindset in that we can't afford to let the pressure get to us. I don't think anybody is feeling the pressure, as such, it's more a desire to try to pick up the points."

Today, we welcome Sheffield United to our new home and the challenge will once again be on the players to find a way to claim all three points from the game. It is the first time we have faced the Blades since progressing past them in the semi-finals of the League Cup back in 2015. They were a League One side at that time and what a rise it has been for the South Yorkshire side since.

Eleven games into their first season back in the top-flight, United find themselves in sixth spot with the joint-best defence in the league having conceded just eight times so far – and this is after having spent six of the last nine seasons in the third tier of English football.

"They have been a real breath of fresh air for the league," Ben said. "They've come up and have played football in their own style. Chris Wilder is doing an excellent job there. It's going to be a very tough game.

"Speaking to a few of the Welsh boys that have been there in the last few years, like David Brooks and Kieron Freeman, who is still there, it seems like a very close group and that appears to have got them through most things; that determination to stick together when times are tough.

"I'm sure their aim will still be to get to that '40-point mark' and make sure they stay up for next season, but they seem to be flying at the moment. It's down to us to try to stop that."

SCENE SETTER

Previewing this afternoon's Premier League meeting with Sheffield United, looking at the form guide, previous encounters and a whole host of vital statistics…

DID YOU KNOW?

Our 2-0 win over United in September 1992, was our first-ever Premier League victory, coming in our sixth game of the season.

2008
Dimitar Berbatov opened the scoring just seven minutes into his home debut for us, while Jermaine Jenas added a second to give us the points at the Lane.
2007
Jermaine Jenas gave us the lead in our last PL clash with the Blades, but the home team hit back through goals from Rob Hulse and a Phil Jagielka penalty.
1994
All four goals came in the second half in a 2-2 draw in N17. Jason Dozzell and Kevin Scott scored for us, Nathan Blake and Brian Gayle for the visitors.
1993
We took the lead through Jason Dozzell but it ended all square in Sheffield as Adrian Littlejohn netted twice for the Blades and Teddy Sheringham scored our second.
1992
Two goals in three minutes either side of half-time gave us the points at White Hart Lane, Teddy Sheringham opening the scoring before Gordon Durie doubled the lead.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

v Sheffield United

This is just the seventh time the two teams have met in the Premier League and it's honours even so far with two wins apiece and two draws. Let's take a look at some of those previous meetings…

HOME GOALS

The home side has scored at least twice and has never lost in every PL fixture between the two sides so far (W4 D2)

LOST IN LONDON

The Blades are winless in their last 17 Premier League games in London (D6 L11) since beating Chelsea 2-1 in October 1992.

KANE GAIN

Sheffield United will be the 29th different Premier League side Harry Kane has faced – he's scored against all previous 28 clubs.

HEAD TO HEAD

TEAM FORM

Spurs:	Sheffield United:

We've now gone four Premier League matches without a win since our 2-1 victory over Southampton here in September. That was followed by defeat at Brighton, a home draw with Watford, a 2-1 reverse at Anfield and last weekend's 1-1 draw at Everton. But we have only lost one of our last 43 league games against promoted sides, a home defeat to Wolves last season.

Chris Wilder's side sat sixth in the Premier League table at the start of play this weekend, having made a bright start to the campaign. They are one of only two teams to remain unbeaten away from home this season (along with Liverpool), after drawing at Bournemouth, Chelsea, Watford and West Ham and winning at Everton.

The much-travelled Lundstram was born in Liverpool and spent his formative years at Everton, but never made a first-team appearance and instead embarked on a series of loan spells at the likes of Doncaster Rovers, Blackpool and Scunthorpe United. Released by Everton in 2014, he signed for Oxford United, and helped them win promotion to League One in 2015/16. The following season he was named captain and led the club to the EFL Trophy final. Chris Wilder swooped to sign Lundstram in the summer of 2017 and he soon became a key man for the Blades, helping them win promotion last season. His goal against Crystal Palace in August meant he had achieved the rare feat of scoring in all four divisions of English football. He hit a brace against Burnley last time out.

TRUE COLOURS

We all have our favourites when it comes to past Spurs kits and, sometimes, they can evoke memories of specific games, moments and the players who wore them. Continuing our series for the 2019/20 season, Billy Shaw chats to our players – past and present – to find out what comes into their minds when they look back at a selection of our shirts from seasons gone by. Today, we speak to legendary former captain and now Club Ambassador, Ledley King…

SPURS AWAY KIT, 1998/99

"I never wore that colour in the first team," said Ledley as he examined a picture of our away kit from the 1998/99 season – a purple number with discreet white detailing.

"That said, I'm pretty sure I wore it in the youth team. For some reason, looking at that shirt, I'm thinking Ramon Vega – I don't know why he's popping into my head! Him and Ruel Fox actually. I think I'd associate this kit with them – two players who were in the team in the late-1990s."

Ledley was only 18 when this kit was in circulation. He made his senior debut at the end of that season in a 3-2 defeat at Liverpool, coming on as a half-time substitute to fill in at left-back following the sending-off of Mauricio Taricco. Naturally, with there being no colour clash with Liverpool's red, we were in our traditional Lilywhite and navy blue kit on that occasion.

"I only played that one game for the first team that season," confirmed the ex-defender. "There were occasions where I would have been part of the squad and I would have travelled with the team a few times but I don't ever remember playing in that kit at senior level – I probably had it on under my tracksuit a few times!"

SPURS AWAY KIT, 2005/06

Our range of kits for the 2005/06 season were the last to use the old Cockerel motif with the 'Audere est Facere' motto underneath, before we changed over to the present-day logo in 2006, in time for our switch to Puma.

Our Kappa away kit during that campaign was predominantly royal blue with yellow detailing on the collar and down the sides of the body.

"Again, I don't know why these two players are coming into my head, but I'm going to say this one reminds me of Andy Reid and Teemu Tainio – particularly Reidy," smiled Ledley.

"I'm sure this was the kit we wore when we lost at Grimsby in the League Cup, when they scored right at the end to win 1-0. I remember Andy played that night – it's an unfortunate one to remember!"

Our former skipper is spot on – midfielder Reid joined us from Nottingham Forest in January, 2005, and wore this kit during his one and only full season with us in 2005/06 before moving on to Charlton Athletic. Defensive midfielder Tainio also joined us in 2005 from Auxerre and would spend the next three years with us, helping us lift the League Cup in his final season as a Spur in 2007/08.

SPURS THIRD KIT, 2006/07

Puma arrived as our kit supplier in 2006 and immediately came up with a striking, unusual third kit – an all-brown number with gold detailing.

"I remember us playing European games in that kit," said Ledley, casting his mind back to the UEFA Cup campaign of 2006/07. "We went to Slavia Prague early on in the season and wore the brown kit and I'm sure the team wore it against Braga in the latter stages as well, although I don't think I played in that game.

"It's funny – I don't remember us doing very well whenever we wore that kit but when you think about it, we beat Slavia Prague, we beat Braga, so it can't have been that bad!

"As for the players I'd associate it with, there are quite a few to be honest – Mido, Hossam Ghaly, Berba (Dimitar Berbatov) and Steed Malbranque to name some that come to mind."

Ledley was reminded that we also trotted out in domestic action wearing this kit.

"We would have been in brown at Blackburn that year – that was the game when Hossam got sent off right at the end and we drew 1-1," he said. "Brad Friedel played for them and he obviously went on to become one of my team-mates here at Spurs."

Ledley quickly recalled one of the most iconic north London derbies ever to have taken place when he was shown pictures of our home shirt from the 2008/09 campaign.

"This reminds me of David Bentley and the long-range goal he scored at Arsenal in the 4-4 draw," he said. "I wasn't involved but I just remember that because it was such an eventful game.

"Bentley definitely comes to mind when you look at this shirt and so does Luka Modric. I can picture him having some very good games wearing this kit.

"It was the season after we won the League Cup. Obviously we didn't start well and then Harry (Redknapp) came in as manager. We played Liverpool at home a few days after Arsenal and won 2-1 – Roman Pavlyuchenko scored in the 90th minute."

This kit was somewhat unique for us in the modern era as it featured blue and white hooped socks. Sadly, it didn't go down in history as being as 'successful' as its predecessor – we made it back to Wembley for a second consecutive year as we looked to retain the League Cup under Ledley's captaincy but Manchester United got the better of us on penalties in the final.

Dilan Markanday looks to shrug off the attentions of Crvena's Aleksandar Lukic

UEFA YOUTH LEAGUE: CRVENA ZVEZDA 2-0 SPURS

Our Under-19s fell to a 2-0 defeat to Crvena zvezda in a disappointing UEFA Youth League showing in Belgrade on Wednesday afternoon.

The match was held at the unique Voždovac Stadium, built on top of a shopping complex just a couple of miles from Red Star's main Rajko Mitic Stadium, but unfortunately we were unable to produce the goods on the synthetic playing surface.

We never really looked a threat and after an uneventful first half, Andrija Radulovic beat the offside trap and fired his side ahead with just over 20 minutes remaining. J'Neil Bennett thought he'd equalised late on but his long-range effort was somehow clawed away by goalkeeper Andrija Katic and Petar Piplica stepped off the bench to seal the deal for the hosts deep into added time.

The result saw Crvena zvezda jump above us into second place in Group B.

Crvena zvezda: Katic, Mitrovic, Blagojevic, Matic (Miletic 67), Lukic, Milikic, Pantovic (Bacanin 70), Novakovic, Burmaz (c) (Piplica 90+2), Radulovic, Babic. Substitutes (not used): Copic, Savic, Pisar, Pesovic.

Spurs: De Bie, Eyoma, Cirkin, Bowden (c), Binks, Fagan-Walcott, Oakley-Boothe (Pochettino 77), White, Bennett, Robson (Whittaker 67), Markanday (Pedder 83). Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Lusala, Muir.

TURNAROUND AGAINST POTTERS

Three second-half goals saw our youngsters fight back from 2-0 down to beat Stoke City 3-2 in the Under-18 Premier League Cup at a windy Hotspur Way a fortnight ago (Saturday 26 October).

Trailing at half-time to Dan Malone's penalty, we conceded again less than two minutes into the second period after a good touch and finish from striker Mohamed Sankoh. But Rafferty Pedder kick-started the comeback on 54 minutes before Tarrelle Whittaker levelled from the spot on 72 minutes after a foul on Dennis Cirkin. Max Robson completed the turnaround three minutes later.

Spurs: Lo-Tutala, Lusala, Cirkin, Cesay, Muir (c), Skinner (Tr), Cooper (Bennett 54), John, Whittaker, Santiago (Robson 54), Pedder (Mundle 73). Substitute (not used): Kurylowicz.

Troy Parrott completes his hat-trick from the spot against Crvena zvezda

FIVE STAR SHOW AGAINST RED STAR

We secured our biggest-ever UEFA Youth League victory with a 9-2 win over Crvena zvezda in the first meeting between the sides at Hotspur Way on matchday three of the competition recently.

Striker Troy Parrott led the way with four goals while J'Neil Bennett and Robson marked their first European appearances of the season by getting on the scoresheet. The Serbian visitors weren't going away, captain Borisav Burmaz and Milos Pantovic ensuring they remained within touching distance, but we pulled clear when Parrott completed his hat-trick from the penalty spot to make it 5-2. Kion Etete subsequently opening his European account before further goals from Parrott, Harvey White and Paris Maghoma.

Spurs: De Bie, Eyoma, Cirkin (Lusala 85), Bowden (c) (John 84), Binks, Fagan-Walcott, Markanday (Etete 79), White, Parrott, Robson (Maghoma 64), Bennett (Pochettino 79). Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Whittaker.

LATE REVIVAL AT ARSENAL

Etete scored a 94th-minute equaliser as our Under-18s came back from 2-0 down to draw 2-2 at Arsenal on 19 October.

The Gunners had taken the lead through Nathan Butler's brace, but Bennett fired us back into the contest three minutes later and after two important stops from goalkeeper Thimothee Lo-Tutala, we were rewarded for an industrious display right at the end of the game. Etete was the scorer, but the goal was all thanks to excellent work in the build-up from Chay Cooper, who was a real bundle of energy after coming on as a substitute.

Spurs: Lo-Tutala, Cesay, Cirkin, Santiago (Pedder 68), Muir, Lusala, Whittaker (Cooper 81), John, Etete (c), Robson, Bennett. Substitutes (not used): Kurylowicz, Mundle.

FIVE THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT... KALLUM CESAY

1. Kallum Cesay was born on 4 September, 2002, in Newham. A tall, athletic player, he joined our Academy four years ago, having previously played for West Ham, and went full-time with our Under-18s during the summer. So far this season, he's impressed both in central midfield and at right-back, even chipping in with two league goals.

2. He has a keen interest in boxing thanks to his father. Kallum explained: "My dad was an amateur boxer and still coaches at various gyms. I boxed a bit myself when I was younger because of him and also because it's one of the best ways to keep fit. When I was 14 I won the Hull Box Cup, which is a big Olympic-style tournament."

3. Staying with the boxing theme, Kallum says that if he could meet someone famous outside of football, it would be Floyd Mayweather Jr. He added: "What he accomplished in boxing was terrific so I'd want to speak to him to find out some information about how he did it. My favourite current fighter is Gennady Golovkin."

4. Whenever he gets a chance to watch our first team in action, he likes to follow Moussa Sissoko and Lucas Moura: "Moussa is someone I really respect," Kallum said. "He has great athleticism and commitment and is a top professional – plus he's played in central midfield and occasionally at right-back like me. Lucas is a really exciting player, runs a lot, gets around the pitch and has good movement and dribbling skills."

5. Away from the sporting world, Kallum enjoys watching 'Prison Break' on Netflix, posting on Snapchat or heading out to the shops in the capital. His favourite food is chicken macaroni and cheese, with omelettes a close second. When he was younger, he paid the occasional visit to watch greyhound racing at Romford while the first autograph he collected was from former England striker Carlton Cole.

PREMIER LEAGUE 2: SPURS 1-3 ARSENAL

Tashan Oakley-Boothe lets fly against Arsenal

A stoppage-time goal from Arsenal substitute Nathan Tormey ended our Under-23s' spirited pursuit of an equaliser in the Premier League 2 north London derby at Stevenage last Friday night.

After a bright start, we conceded twice in the latter stages of the first half to Robbie Burton and Trae Coyle but persevered after the restart and deservedly got a goal back through Harvey White with just under a quarter-of-an-hour left.

An open, exciting conclusion to the game followed as we chased a leveller, but the Gunners always seemed at their most dangerous on the break and when Tormey converted at the second time of asking following an initial save from Jonathan De Bie, it was game over at 3-1.

Spurs: De Bie, Eyoma, Okedina (Hinds 70), Bowden (c), Fagan-Walcott, Binks, Markanday, White, Oakley-Boothe, Shashoua (Pochettino 88), Tracey (Maghoma 68). Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Lyons-Foster.

Arsenal: Hein, Swanson (Olowu 89), Bola, Smith, Clarke, Mavropanos, Coyle (Tormey 66), Burton (c), John-Jules, Smith Rowe, Nelson (Cottrell 46). Substitutes (not used): Hillson, Medley.

SUPPORT THE LADS IN LEASING.COM TROPHY THIS TUESDAY

Our Development Squad's third group stage fixture of the 2019/20 Leasing.com Trophy is against Gillingham at Priestfield Stadium on Tuesday night (12 November), kick-off 7pm.

Tickets cost £10 for adults, £5 for concessions and £1 for Under-12s (accompanied by an adult) and will be available on the night from turnstile 14 (cash only) at the Priestfield Road entrance to the stadium. Our supporters will then be directed to the designated away fans' area in the Gordon Road Stand. This is a covered stand, although seating is unreserved.

IMPRESSIVE WIN OVER WANDERERS

Our Under-23s deservedly secured a 2-1 win at Wolves in the rain a fortnight ago (Saturday 26 October).

The result never looked in doubt at Wolves' training complex about a mile away from Molineux.

Defensively sound with Tariq Hinds knitting things together at the base of midfield, our attacking players caused the home team all sorts of problems, particularly in the first half. Armando Shashoua scored twice and we could well have been out of reach by the break. The game had ticked into the final seconds of added time when Boubacar Hanne rifled home a consolation for Wolves.

Wolves: Sondergaard, Buur (Kitolano 74), Sanderson, Francis (c), Csoka, Thompson (Richards 72), Perry, Watt, Samuels, Ming-Yang (Hanne 46), Campbell. Substitutes (not used): Otasowie, Dai.

Luis Binks takes control during our victory at Wolves

Spurs: De Bie, Okedina, Binks, Eyoma (c), Lyons-Foster (Maghoma 79), Hinds, Oakley-Boothe, Pochettino (Markanday 65), Shashoua (Patterson 88), Tracey, Etete. Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Dinzeyi.

BELOW-PAR DISPLAY AGAINST FOXES

Second-half goals from Callum Wright and George Hirst consigned our Under-23s to a 2-0 defeat at home to Leicester City on 18 October.

Playing at Stevenage's Lamex Stadium for the first time this season, we couldn't muster enough of a goal threat over the 90 minutes in what was a game of few clear-cut chances. Leicester edged ahead shortly after half-time when our defence was caught napping after George Thomas' free-kick hit the post and Callum Wright slid home the loose ball, before centre-forward George Hirst made sure with six minutes left, converting Josh Eppiah's cut-back after Hinds was unfortunate to lose a 50-50 challenge out on the touchline. Paris Maghoma's back-post effort was somehow kept out in added time.

Spurs: De Bie, Eyoma (c), Hinds, Oakley-Boothe, Fagan-Walcott, Binks, Patterson (Markanday 70), Maghoma, Richards (R Clarke 78), Shashoua, Tracey. Substitutes (not used): Kurylowicz, Okedina, Pochettino.

Profiling former Academy players who made the grade as a pro after leaving our youth set-up…

CALUM BUTCHER

Rochford-born Calum Butcher joined our Academy full-time in the summer of 2007 and was a regular in our youth teams over the next few years, featuring more than any other player (33 games) for our Under-18s during 2008/09.

The central defender had a short spell on loan with Barnet in 2009, making his senior debut against Bournemouth on 1 December and, after being released by Spurs, he joined Danish side FC Hjorring in July, 2011. A year there was followed by a season in non-league with Hayes and Yeading, before signing for Dundee United in July, 2013, making 21 appearances for the Scottish side.

A year with Burton Albion was followed by season at Millwall in 2016/17, during which he played against us at the Lane in an FA Cup quarter-final. He then spent 18 months at Mansfield Town, with a loan spell at Billericay Town in 2018, but he rejoined Dundee United in January this year and has played 24 times for this season, scoring twice in a 6-2 derby win over Dundee in August.

SPURS WOMEN CONQUER IN LONDON DERBIES

Tottenham Hotspur Women moved up to third place in Group D of the Continental League Cup, following a 4-2 victory in a penalty shootout against West Ham at Rush Green Stadium on Sunday 20 October and a 3-0 away win against Crystal Palace last Sunday.

Against the Hammers, we had a 2-0 lead going into stoppage time thanks to goals from Rianna Dean and Josie Green, but there was late drama as Martha Thomas and Kenza Dali scored for the home side to level it up at 2-2 and ensure a share of the spoils, with the game going to penalties to determine who gained a bonus point.

Chloe Peplow, Lucy Quinn and Dean converted their penalties for us, with Chloe Morgan making a brilliant save to deny Adriana Leon of West Ham before Rachel Furness scored the decisive spot-kick.

West Ham: Moorhouse, Redisch Kvamme, Hendrix, Flaherty (c), Lehmann (Thomas 57), Baunach, Longhurst (Kiszkis 75), Galabadarrachchi, Leon, Dali, Middag (So-Hyun 68). Substitute (not used): Brosnan.

Spurs: Earps, Smith, Ladd (Toone 78), Galton, Harris, Groenen (Ross 84), M Turner, Zelem (c), Hanson (Sigsworth 65), James, A Turner. Substitutes (not used): Mikalsen, Okvist, Green.

Last Sunday against Crystal Palace, defender Anna Filbey scored her first goal of the season as we sealed a 3-0 win in the Conti Cup at Bromley FC.

Filbey broke the deadlock within six minutes and two brilliant second half goals from Kit Graham and Lucy Quinn wrapped up our London derby victory.

There were eight changes in total to the starting line-up as Angela Addison made her first start of the season and on the bench, reserve team goalkeeper Megan Drew was named as a substitute.

Crystal Palace: Gibbon, Am. Goddard, Butler, L Rutherford, Pepper, Waldie (Laudat 64), Geougiou, Watling (c) (Hurley 74), As. Goddard, Mosengo (Khassal 64), E Rutherford. Substitutes (not used): Stevens, Baptiste, Johnson, Gillet.

Spurs: Morgan, Neville, Filbey, Schillaci (c), Leon, Peplow, Haines (Green 81), Graham, Ayane, Wynne (Quinn 59), Addison (Percival 70). Substitutes (not used): Drew, Worm, Dean, Godfrey.

Kit Graham levels the scores against Bristol City

GRAHAM'S BRACE SECURES AWAY WIN

We came from behind to return to winning ways in the Barclays FA Women's Super League on Sunday 27 October with a 2-1 triumph against Bristol City.

Abigail Harrison had fired Bristol into the lead on 39 minutes when she was on hand to lash home the inviting rebound past Becky Spencer after Olivia Chance's initial goal-bound effort had been blocked.

But two quick-fire goals from Graham on 63 and 64 minutes – her first competitive goals for the Club - turned the game in our favour. Her opening strike was a rocket from just outside the box which flew into the top corner to level the scores and 60 seconds later, she repeated the feat with another thundering drive out of the reach of the diving Sophie Baggaley to give us the lead.

Three minutes later, the attacker was in the thick of the action once more as she won us a penalty, but Rachel Furness' resulting effort from the spot was saved.

The home side rallied in the last 20 minutes to find an equaliser, but our defence remained firm and composed to seal our third league win of the season.

Bristol City: Baggaley, Dykes (c) (Allen 64), Evans, Matthews, Brown, Humphrey (Wilson 81), Daniels (Salmon 69), Wellings, Sargeant, Chance, Harrison. Substitutes (not used): Cummings, Van der Linden, Reilly, Robinson.

Spurs: Spencer, Percival, Filbey, Godfrey, Worm, Peplow, Green (c), Furness, Graham, Dean, Quinn. Substitutes (not used): Leon, Haines, Schillaci, Wynne, Addison, Ayane, Neville.

GODFREY EARNS FIRST SCOTLAND CALL-UP

Defender Hannah Godfrey has received her first call-up to the Scotland Women's Senior National Team for their UEFA Women's Euro 2021 Qualifier against Albania.

Hannah has impressed for us at centre-back since joining the Club in the summer, starting in every game in the Barclays FA Women's Super League this season and was awarded Player of the Match in our historic win against West Ham at London Stadium.

In more good news, full-back Lucia Leon has also earned her first call-

AN UNMISSABLE DAY OUT FOR ALL THE FAMILY AT WOMEN'S NLD

Excitement is building ahead of the historic Women's north London derby here at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium on Sunday 17 November (kick-off 3pm), as Spurs Women take on Arsenal Women for the first time in the Barclays FA Women's Super League (WSL).

If you haven't got your ticket yet, there is still time to buy online!

Those arriving early will get the chance to meet Club legends Ledley King and Gary Mabbutt, along with two current Tottenham Hotspur Women players (names TBC), taking part in a signing session between 11am-1pm in the Spurs Shop at the Tottenham Experience.

Fans will be greeted as they arrive at the stadium by our fantastic Fanbassadors, who will be handing out flags for you to show your colours. We'll also have face painting and temporary tattoos available for younger fans, with further giveaways including posters and Panini cards.

As you enter the stadium, the atmosphere will be electric – we have live entertainment on the concourses, which will be open from 1pm. Popular mascots Chirpy and Lily will also be roaming for photo opportunities.

Our wide range of food and drink will be available, with our Snack Attack! packs on offer for younger fans, plus delicious options including gourmet burgers, fish and chips, fried chicken, pizzas and Asian cuisine across over 60 outlets.

The entertainment continues as you take your seats in the bowl ready for the 3pm kick-off, with a live DJ performance as the atmosphere builds. Our incredible football freestylers will be performing pitchside and we'll have t-shirt cannons firing further giveaways into the crowd.

We have priced tickets for this fixture in line with regular Tottenham Hotspur Women home matches played at The Hive this season:

Adults - £6.50*

Young Adults (18-21)/Juniors/over 65s - £3.50

Family package (2 adults, 2 children) - £15*

A 50p booking fee will apply for each adult ticket purchased*

There is no limit to the amount of tickets fans can purchase per transaction. Fans wishing to purchase more than 10 tickets, however, should email Groupbookings@tottenhamhotspur.com.

Premium seats are available at the same prices, located on Levels 2 and 3. Please note, these will be seats only and not inclusive of any Premium package.

SKIPPY JOINS HOLIDAY FOOTBALL PROGRAMME AT FORMER SCHOOL

Young midfielder Oliver Skipp took a trip down memory lane last week when he visited one of the Club's half-term Player Development Programmes at his old school, Richard Hale, in Hertford.

During the session, Oliver gave advice and tips to local young players hoping to follow his path of becoming a professional footballer. This involved demonstrating his skills to the youngsters and participating in technical sessions, followed by a Q&A on his personal journey as a player.

Oliver also met his former coaches - Tony Tilbrook of the Tottenham Hotspur Academy and Richard Hale's Head of Football, Kevin Patterson - to talk about their memories of the midfielder as a young student progressing through the Spurs youth system into the first team.

Academy product Oliver, who was born and raised in Hertfordshire, said: "The coaching I've received so far has taught me about more than just technique – it has helped me develop the work ethic and determination you need to succeed as a player.

"It's great to see that my former school is playing a part in giving the next crop of local talent the opportunity to learn new skills, build confidence and hopefully reach their goal of becoming a pro."

Throughout the half-term period, we ran Holiday Player Development Programmes in London, Hertfordshire and Essex. Through individual monitoring and elite level coaching, the programmes enable youngsters to play the game while developing their skills with flair, fluidity and an attacking mindset.

Our programmes run throughout the year in these areas, both during school holidays and term-time evenings. For more information visit tottenhamhotspur.com/develop

This year's Winter Premier Day, an elite coaching experience which takes place at our state-of-the-art Training Centre, will take place on Monday 23 December. Register your interest in this exclusive course at TOTTENHAMHOTSPUR.COM/PREMIER-DAY

HALF-TERM FOOTBALL FUN!

Local youngsters at a Tottenham Hotspur Foundation half-term football session were treated to something extra special when Davinson Sanchez and Anna Filbey came along to participate at New River Sports Centre, Wood Green.

The pair joined in with a variety of drills and gave pre-match team talks to around 50 youngsters, including boys, girls and young people with disabilities.

Alongside its regular community programmes, the Foundation put on additional football tournaments and coaching courses during the school holiday to engage young people in positive activities through their passion for the sport.

Centre-back Davinson said: "It was great to see the young people coming together through their love of football. These sessions give them the opportunity to play in a safe environment and learn new skills."

"Today gave me a real insight into the Club's far-reaching work in the community," said Spurs Women defender Anna. "There are so many positives to playing sport and it's fantastic that youngsters have access to sessions like this."

The session coincided with the Premier League's announcement that it will fund its community programme, Premier League Kicks, for a further three years. This investment will enable more than 175,000 young people to access free football coaching, sports coaching and workshops across England and Wales by 2022.

Premier League Kicks, which was launched in 2006 with the help of Tottenham Hotspur at Ferry Lane Estate, uses the power of football to help young people work together to build a safer, stronger and more respectful community, while equipping them with skills to help steer them away from crime.

The Club recently celebrated the success of its Kicks programme by helping to launch a new partnership between the Premier League, Metropolitan Police and City Hall that will see additional funding to enhance the programme's delivery in London.

Tottenham Hotspur runs Kicks sessions at venues across Haringey, including New River Sports Centre, Seven Sisters Primary School, Duke's Aldridge Academy and Ferry Lane Estate.

PLAYERS MEET FANS AT TOTTENHAM EXPERIENCE

Hundreds of excited Spurs fans got the opportunity to meet their heroes when Erik Lamela, Harry Winks, Hannah Godfrey and Kit Graham made a special appearance at the Tottenham Experience recently.

The quartet took part in a signing session which gave fans of all ages the chance to meet our players during the half-term holidays.

Spurs mascots, Chirpy and Lily, were on hand to entertain fans as they waited, plus a football freestyler showed off his skills and taught youngsters some new tricks.

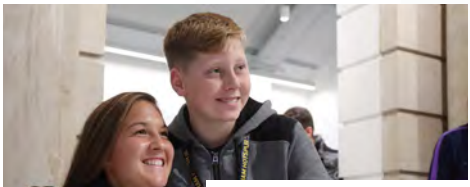
Erik and Harry have both been key figures in our season so far, with Harry also involved in the most recent England internationals.

Hannah and Kit, meanwhile, took time out of their busy training schedule to meet fans ahead of the historic north London derby against Arsenal Women in the Barclays FA Women's Super League (WSL) on Sunday 17 November.

It's the first time the rivals have met in the top flight of the women's game and a first ever appearance for Tottenham Hotspur Women at the new stadium.

Harry said: "We're all so grateful for the incredible support our fans show us every week at home and away, so to come out and meet some of them in person today was very special."

Spurs Women defender Hannah said: "The fact that it's half-term meant we were able to meet fans of all ages. Hopefully they all enjoyed the day as much as we did."



BACK POST AT THE

What does the name Sheffield United stir in the memory of club historian John Fennelly? We find out.

1 MICHAEL BROWN

After emerging through the youth ranks at Manchester City, battling central midfielder Michael Brown's league debut was certainly memorable – he was sent off within 10 minutes of going on as substitute!

Despite that inauspicious start, he went on to play regularly there before moving to Sheffield United in January 2000 after a loan spell at Bramall Lane. He did well under manager Neil Warnock, scoring goals in key games, and where his hard-working efforts were highly appreciated by Blades fans.

Michael joined us in January 2004, when caretaker manager David Pleat signed him for a reported £500,000 and quickly gave him his debut in a 2-1 home win over Liverpool. He later played for Fulham, Wigan, Portsmouth, Leeds and Port Vale.

2 SONNY WALTERS

Sonny Walters recorded a hat-trick when we beat United 7-0 at the Lane in November 1949, on our way to the Division Two title.

It was a good Blades side who would beat us 2-1 in the return but those goals would have massive ramifications at the end of the season when United lost out on promotion to city rivals Wednesday by just 0.008 of a goal! Indeed, had we won at Hillsborough on the last day of the season, United would have gone up with us. But the match ended 0-0.

However, even in adversity, the Blades received great praise for their performance in that seven-goal reverse. As our subsequent programme reported:

"The spirit in which the game was played was most creditable to both teams. There was not an intentional foul in the 90 minutes play. It was a scrupulously clean, scientific display and the science was not all on one side. I doff my hat to the United players."

3 SANDY BROWN

Prodigious Scottish striker Sandy Brown was only with us for two years, but his goals took us to FA Cup success for the first time in 1901 when we beat United in a replayed final.

He netted both our goals in the 2-2 draw with the Blades at Crystal Palace and was again on target as we won the decider 3-1 at Burnden Park.

Indeed, he scored in every round of that season's competition – a record total of 15 that stands to this day and looks likely to remain unbeaten.

Surprisingly, he won just the one cap for Scotland, towards the end of his career.

4 JACK CHISHOLM

Our former centre-half Jack Chisholm played for United in that 1949 game detailed (left). He had joined the Blades from Brentford in March that year as they headed for relegation from the top tier.

Born in Enfield, Jack was a powerfully built defender who relished a physical challenge. He started out in our junior ranks and made his senior debut at the age of 17 when the demands of World War Two depleted our ranks and he became the mainstay of our defence.

Called up, he served in the Irish Guards. On his return to Tottenham, he was injured in the first match of 1945-46 and failed to regain his place. Subsequently had his best days with Plymouth.

Jack Chisholm

5 KEITH OSGOOD

Central defender Keith Osgood was deadly from the penalty spot – as he proved when he slotted two into the United net when the Blades visited White Hart Lane in August 1977. It was our first game in Division Two after our relegation the season before. And we opened the campaign with confidence as further goals from John Duncan and Chris Jones led us to a 4-2 win.

Chico Hamilton (penalty) and Keith Edwards replied for the Blades.

6 JOE WALTON

Flying winger Joe Walton made his debut for Preston at the age of 17 but it took another two years before he gained a regular first team place.

He moved to Spurs in May 1903 and again needed time to establish himself in our Southern League side. However, once into his energetic stride, Joe became a key element of our ambition and played his part when we gained Football League status in 1908.

However, an offer from top-flight United the following year proved irresistible.

7 GEORGE HUNT

Striker George Hunt was the 'one that got away' as far as United are concerned.

Barnsley born, he was not taken on after a trial at Bramall Lane. But Chesterfield did and he established such a goalscoring record there that Arsenal were keen but decided to leave him a season which allowed Spurs to snap him up in June 1930.

Once he had his chance, Hunt seized it with both boots and he scored regularly as we won promotion in 1933 and he went on to win three England caps.

After seven successful seasons at the Lane, he eventually joined Arsenal in 1937. He only stayed there six months but, in that time, won a Championship-winners medal. Hunt joined Bolton the following year, served with the Royal Artillery during the Second World War, and finished his playing career with Sheffield Wednesday.

8 MARTIN PETERS

England's World Cup-winning goalscorer Martin Peters served us well for five years in the 1970s before a similar time span at Norwich. By August 1980 he had been appointed player-coach at Bramall Lane.

The Blades were in the old Third Division at the time – and struggling. Peters took on the role as manager in January 1981 but unfortunately could not prevent the already endemic decline as United dropped into Division Four for the first time in their history.

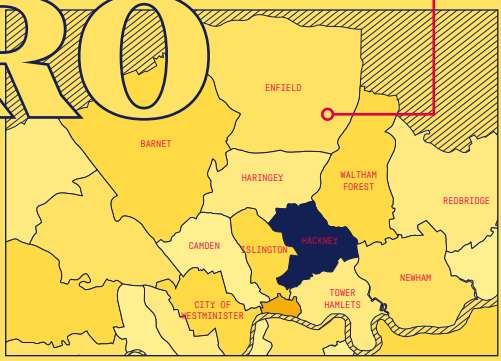
LOCAL HERO

PLAYER NAME:
JOHN HOLLOWBREAD
D.O.B: 02.01.34
POSITION: GOALKEEPER
LEAGUE APPEARANCES: 67
BORN IN: PONDERS END



Looking back on players spotted by Spurs playing locally in schools' football – and who went on to star in our first team. John Fennelly details the career of John Hollowbread

Goalkeeper John Hollowbread faced the unenviable task of trying to oust England international Ted Ditchburn and his extremely capable understudy Ron Reynolds at White Hart Lane.

And when the legend that was Ditchburn finally moved on in April 1959, manager Bill Nicholson immediately added Scotland's Bill Brown to his squad the following month!

The irony was that Hollowbread had made his first team debut early in the previous season which was to be his most consistent at Tottenham. Of the 73 senior appearances he would make for us, 44 games were played in the 1958/59 campaign when Bill Nick took over from Jimmy Anderson.

So, seeing Brown arrive from Dundee the following summer must have been a major downer. And when Reynolds finally gave up in March 1960, and headed off to Southampton, the ever optimistic Hollowbread may have moved up a rung but he continued to play much of his regular football at Reserve team level.

Yet he was a very capable custodian whose availability was regularly the subject of enquiries from other clubs. However, Bill Nick fully appreciated and never doubted John's abilities and would not let him go.

Hollowbread also played his part in our 1961 Double success, standing in for the injured Brown at West Ham on Boxing Day, saving brilliantly from England skipper Bobby Moore on one occasion and being key to maintaining our momentum in our 3-0 win.

The immensely loyal John stayed with us for 14 years and, when he decided to try his luck elsewhere in 1964, the man he replaced was – Reynolds at Southampton!

John was on our books from June 1950, until May 1964. In addition to his senior action, he kept goal in over 350 competitive games for our reserve, 'A' and 'B' teams, once scoring from a penalty for the second XI in an 8-0 win over Mansfield Town on 17 March, 1962.

John Hollowbread in action against Burnley in October 1959

Hollowbread attended Chase Side Junior School and Tottenham Technical College, representing Enfield, Tottenham and Middlesex Schools. He also played for an England Youth XI against a Public School XI.

On leaving school John worked for a time in the printing trade and played for Enfield prior to signing amateur forms for us on 3 June, 1950. John had followed in his father's footsteps as Enfield goalkeeper. His dad Fred had played for them, as well as our Northfleet United nursery team, during the 1930s.

Upgraded to professional status on 21 January, 1952, John completed his National Service with the Royal Army Ordnance Corps, winning the Army and Western Command Cups.

Given his reserve team debut towards the end of season 1954/55, he had to wait until 30 August, 1958 for his first taste of league action, against Blackburn Rovers when both Ditchburn and Reynolds were injured. Unfortunately, that didn't go too well for him as we went down 5-0 at Ewood Park in a campaign that would see us struggle at the wrong end of the season as Nicholson re-built the side.

Yet John kept his place from then on and played in every one of our subsequent league and cup games, making more appearances than any other player in the squad. Ominously, Brown stepped up for his debut on the opening day of the following season and his consistency proved to be something special yet Hollowbread was on hand to step in when required and always did so with verve. His final senior appearance in our colours was against Ipswich Town on 4 April, 1964, when we won 6-3 at home.

Hollowbread had enjoyed a good run in the side in the second half of that 1963-64 season and once again clubs were directing envious glances in our direction.

Transferred to Southampton for a £3,000 fee the following month, John made 40 senior appearances for the Saints before sustaining a serious knee injury against Coventry City on 8 September, 1965 which ultimately ended his career.

John continued to be involved in the local football scene around the Southampton area for many years. He ran two pubs and later the bar at a golf club in the New Forest.

John, who resided at Enfield Highway while on our books, subsequently moved to Spain with his wife Vera. Sadly, he passed away following a short illness at Torrevieja, on the Costa Blanca, in December 2007.

AWAY MATCH

Herbert Chapman, who enjoyed great success as a manager with Huddersfield Town and Arsenal, was born in the South Yorkshire village of Kiveton Park in January 1878 and played for both Spurs and Sheffield United.

He studied to be a mining engineer while playing locally and then turned professional with Rochdale in 1897. The inside-forward subsequently represented Grimsby, Swindon and Northampton among others before reverting to amateur status in 1902 to spent one season at Bramall Lane.

Within a year he was a pro again with Notts County and then went back to Northampton at which point we signed him. That was in March 1905, but we had to pay the £70 transfer fee to Notts County as they still held his registration.

Chapman scored on his Spurs debut when we drew 1-1 with Brighton in the Southern League at White Hart Lane just days later.

He was back at Northampton by 1907 as player-manager, then managed Leeds City before those glory days at Leeds Road and Highbury.

UKRAINE
Capital: Kiev
Language: Ukrainian

Ahead of UEFA Euro 2020, Andy Greeves offers the lowdown on various nations that will be appearing at the European Championships as it celebrates its 60th anniversary. Today he takes a look at Andriy Shevchenko's Ukraine

FORM GUIDE

Ukraine's 2-1 victory over Portugal in Kiev last month saw Andriy Shevchenko's side become the fifth team to confirm their place at UEFA Euro 2020 after Belgium, Italy, Poland and Russia.

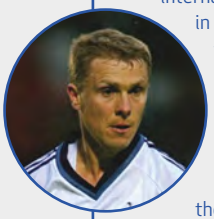
The Yellow-Blue have enjoyed a near faultless qualification campaign, winning six of their seven fixtures to date and drawing the other. Atalanta midfielder Ruslan Malinovskyi, Dynamo Kyiv's Viktor Tsyhankov and Roman Yaremchuk of Belgian First Division A side Gent have all scored three goals apiece in qualifying ahead of their final Group B match away to Serbia on 17 November.

KEY PLAYER

At the start of this season, West Ham United's Andriy Yarmolenko made his long-awaited return from injury, following an Achilles tendon tear last October that saw him ruled out of action for almost 10 months.

The Ukrainian forward has featured in all three of his country's qualifying matches so far this season, scoring in the 2-1 victory over Portugal last month. With 37 goals in 83 international appearances, the Saint Petersburg-born player – who recently celebrated his 30th birthday - is closing in on manager Andriy Shevchenko's record tally of 48 strikes for the Yellow-Blue.

SPURS CONNECTION



We signed former Ukrainian international Sergei Rebrov in the summer of 2000 following his eight seasons with Dynamo Kyiv that saw him score 139 goals in 283 appearances. He helped the club to the semi-finals of the UEFA Champions League in 1998/99 with eight strikes in 14 appearances in the competition that season.

Rebrov made his debut for us in our 3-1 victory over Ipswich Town on the opening day of the 2000/01 Premier League campaign. He netted 12 times in 36 matches in all competitions that season, bagging a brace in our 3-2 victory at West Ham United in an FA Cup quarter-final. He followed that up with three goals in 39 appearances for us during the 2001/02 season prior to a move to Fenerbahce. The striker, who started his career at Shakhtar Donetsk, also played for West Ham United, Rubin Kazan and Irpin Horenychi and had a second spell at Dynamo Kyiv before retiring from playing in 2009. He won 75 caps for Ukraine between 1992 and 2006, scoring 15 times and 29 of those appearances came as a Spurs player.

Since hanging up his boots, Rebrov has gone on to manage Dynamo Kyiv and Al-Ahli and is currently in charge at Hungarian club Ferencvaros.

We faced Shakhtar Donetsk in the UEFA Cup Round of 32 during the 2008/09 season. Goals from Yevhen Seleznyov and Jadson saw us beaten 2-0 at the RSK Olimpiyskyi Stadium in Donetsk in the first leg on 19 February, 2009. Giovani dos Santos reduced our arrears, putting us one-up after 55 minutes of the second leg at White Hart Lane a week later. Current Manchester City midfielder Fernandinho struck four minutes from time to secure a 1-1 draw on the night and a 3-1 aggregate success. The Ukrainian side went on to win the UEFA Cup that season, beating German outfit Werder Bremen 2-1 after extra-time in the final in Istanbul on 20 May, 2009.

We were beaten 1-0 in the first leg of our UEFA Europa League Round of 32 tie at FC Dnipro on 20 February, 2014. Yevhen Konoplyanka scored the winning goal from the penalty spot with nine minutes of the match remaining after Jan Vertonghen was adjudged to have fouled Matheus in the box.

Roman Zozulya put Dnipro 2-0 up on aggregate two minutes into the second half of the return leg at White Hart Lane a week later. Christian Eriksen got a goal back for us nine minutes later and a brace from Emmanuel Adebayor secured our progression to the last 16 of the competition as we won 3-2 on aggregate.

EURO HISTORY

Following Ukrainian independence and the country's breakaway from the Soviet Union, the Ukraine national team played its first official match against Hungary on 29 April, 1992. The Yellow-Blue automatically qualified for its first European Championships, UEFA Euro 2012, as joint hosts of the tournament with Poland. Despite beating Sweden 2-1 in their opening match of the competition, they failed to progress to the knock-out phase as they beaten by England and France in their remaining Group D fixtures.

Ukraine made it to their second European Championships four years later. Defeats to Germany, Poland and Northern Ireland saw them finish bottom of Group C. Andriy Shevchenko's side will be hoping for a better showing on their third appearance at the finals of the tournament next summer.

SPURS RESPECTS

We are justly proud of our superb and loyal support, home and away. We all have a responsibility to act as ambassadors of Tottenham Hotspur Football Club. And act as considerate neighbours to those who live and work in the area around the stadium.
If you witness any form of anti-social abusive or discriminatory behaviour, homophobic language, crime, vandalism, violence, the use of smoke bombs or pyrotechnics close to you at any of our matches, please send a text to 07537 404821 along with your location (block/row/seat) and the location of the offence (block/row/seat).
Text 07537 404821 with – FOUL (language and behaviour); RACISM (racist chanting & shouting); HPH (homophobic chanting); DRINK (drinking alcohol in view of the pitch); SMOKE (smoking in the stadium); STAND (standing up); PYRO (use of or intended use of any pyrotechnics or smoke bomb).

SMOKING

There is no smoking or use of e-cigarettes permitted anywhere across the stadium campus.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION

In the unlikely event that we should have to evacuate the stadium, please adhere to the advice given by front line staff and on our public address system.

Continuing our new Q&A feature for the 2019/20 season – using the year of the Club's formation as inspiration – as we ask our players to choose 18 lifestyle questions from a selection of 82. This afternoon it's the turn of our England midfielder Dele…

1 What is your favourite sandwich?

Dele: "I like a Subway Italian BMT."

2 Who would you most like to meet?

Dele: "Eric Thomas (pictured), a motivational speaker."

3 What is your guilty pleasure?

Dele: "Popcorn, sweet."

4 What is the best advice you've been given?

Dele: "Keep working hard, never give up."

5 What are you always asked in interviews?

Dele: "There are a lot. Last season, it was 'how do you do your celebration'?"

6 What one story do you hope to tell your grandchildren?

Dele: "The one where I can tell them how I helped England win the World Cup."

7 Tell us a secret…

Dele: "If I did, I wouldn't be a secret!"

8 What keeps you going through the bad times?

Dele: "Remembering how far I've come, my aims and ambitions in life."

9 Beach break or city break?

Dele: "Beach."

10 What did you do for your initiation song?

Dele: "It was 'Follow Me' by Uncle Kracker."

11 What reminds you of home?

Dele: "The concrete cows in Milton Keynes! Actually, my mum's chilli."

12 What would be your fancy dress costume?

Dele: "The last time I went to a fancy dress event it was as Ali G."

13 What is your most used WhatsApp group?

Dele: "My friends one from holiday."

14 If you could go back in time, where would you go?

Dele: "Can I change what happened? I'd go back to the Champions League Final in June and tell Moussa Sissoko to keep his hand down!"

15 What advice would you give to your 16-year-old self?

Dele: "Learn another language. Actually, no it would be learn to play the guitar."

16 You are putting together your all-time music playlist – what is the first track you select?

Dele: "That's a tough one. I'll go for 'Ain't No Mountain High Enough' by Marvin Gaye and Tammi Terrell.

17 What is your favourite photograph?

Dele: "One of me on holiday in Dubai on a boat with a guitar."

18 Have you ever seen a ghost?

Dele: "No, I haven't, but I'm very scared of them. I believe they are out there."
